

THE SILVER MEN CAN
BLOCK LEGISLATIONWHITE METAL ADVOCATES
ABLE TO DELAY ACTION.Will Insist on Their Demand Being Granted Before Action Is Taken on Bond or Tariff Bills—Proceedings
In Senate and House—Washington
News.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The defiant attitude which the silver men have assumed with reference to the tariff, as well as to the bond bill, continues to cause a good deal of uneasiness. The more the attitude of the silver people is studied, the more doubtful becomes the passage, apparently, of the tariff bill. Up to this time all efforts to induce those free-silver men who have threatened to vote for a silver amendment to the tariff act to change their tactics have been unavailing. There is good reason to believe that there is a close relationship between the demand for an additional duty on sugar and the proposition to put a silver rider on the tariff bill. It is observed that nearly all of the people who are demanding the sugar amendment are also demanding the free-silver amendment, and it is not improbable that the Republicans of the senate may yet have to concede the increase of the sugar tariff in order to insure that the silver Republicans will not refuse to vote for a silver amendment to the tariff act.

Senator Teller seems to have brought a number of the silver Republicans into line with himself in his determination to support a free-coinage amendment to the tariff act. These senators have it in their power, for the present, at least, to block pretty much all legislation in the senate if they persist in their attitude, as they insist they will do. They even go so far as to say that they will permit no tariff legislation in this or in the next congress without a free-silver attachment. Senator Dubois of Idaho is now as much in earnest in his support of the Teller tariff-silver proposition as is Mr. Teller himself, and says frankly: "There will be no more tariff legislation either in this congress or in the next until we have the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1."

DISCUSS THE RULES.

Proposed Amendments in the House—
Populist Member Complains.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The house gave its time Friday to the discussion of the proposed amendment of the rules of the fifty-first congress, which were provisionally adopted early in the session to govern this house. Mr. Hepburn (Iowa) inspired a discussion by an amendment to direct the speaker to recognize any member who addressed him when no other member was on the floor, and spoke against the growing power given by the rules to the speaker.

Mr. Henderson (Rep., Iowa) replied that a startling innovation was proposed. He was opposed to any change in the rules in this direction. Mr. Bell (Pop., Colo.) seconded Mr. Hepburn, saying that the seven populist members represented 1,600,000 votes, yet they were practically without rights on the floor. They have no places on important committees, and none of them had been permitted to open his mouth for five weeks. He complained that the state of Maine monopolized the leadership of the house with four important places, while the state of Colorado was not recognized, although it had single counties with more wealth than Maine. When Mr. Bell had concluded Mr. Hepburn rose and said, "I desire to withdraw my amendment," and there was great applause and shouts of laughter on the republican side.

Mr. Tawney (rep.) of Minnesota, offered a resolution relating to pension claims. It recited that it was frequently charged by pensioners and applicants that the medical division of the pension bureau fails to properly regard the reports and findings in pension claims made by various boards of the United States examining surgeons, and declared that it was due to the officials of the department, to pensioners and the public that the truth or falsity of the charges be made known. It called upon the secretary of the interior to furnish copies of the reports and findings by boards of examining surgeons, irrespective of locality, in the first fifty claims for original invalid pensions rejected on medical grounds after Nov. 1, 1895. An objection to consideration was made by Mr. McClellan (dem.) of New York.

Mr. Odell (rep.) of New York offered a resolution to direct the committee on banking and currency to report an amendment to the general banking laws giving power to banking associations to invest not to exceed 50 per cent of their lawful reserves in bonds of the United States, to be hereafter issued under the acts of June 14, 1864, and May 31, 1878. Objection was made to Mr. Odell's resolution and it was referred to the committee.

At five o'clock the house adjourned until to-day.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. Jones of Arkansas Opens the Debate on Free-Coinage Bill.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The debate on the senate free-coinage substitute for the house bill was opened Friday by Senator Jones of Arkansas in a two-hours' speech. Mr. Jones took strong grounds in favor of the free and independent coinage of silver, contending that it was the only method by which the distress in the country could be alleviated and the treasury department relieved from its present dependence upon the speculative holders of gold. There was no reply to Mr. Jones' argument, but the debate will be resumed when the senate meets again on Monday.

Mr. Morgan (dem., Ala.), the former chairman of the committee on foreign relations, offered a resolution (which was referred, without debate) conveying the congratulations of congress to President Kruger of the South African Republic.

During the morning hour in the senate, on motion of Mr. Voorhees (dem., Ind.), a resolution was adopted appropriating $250 for the purchase of a portrait of the late Allen G. Thurman.

Mr. Pritchard (rep., N. C.) called up the amendments he offered to the revenue bill. He favored the re-enactment of the McKinley law and the free coinage of silver. He denounced the southern democrats for the recalcitancy to their own section. The tariff law had brought unexampled prosperity to the New England manufacturers and bankrupted and ruin to the farmers and the producers of the south. Mr. Hill (dem., N. Y.) answered Mr. Pritchard. North Carolina, he said, occupied a peculiar situation in congress, at which he did not see how her people could be gratified. A few days ago one of their senators (Mr. Butler) had denounced the democratic party for being false to its pledges of tariff reform. To-day the other end of the combination told the senate that he favored the re-enactment of the McKinley law. The senate, on Mr. Hill's motion, then agreed to adjourn until Monday when the adjournment was taken.

Mr. White (dem., Cal.) consumed the remainder of the time before the expiration of the morning hour with a speech in favor of some practical modification of the senate rules. He favored Senator Hill's proposition, put forward in the last congress, for cloture whenever the majority of the senate was ready to vote. The dignity of the senate, he said, would not be maintained by clinging to rules which permitted interminable filibustering and must eventually bring the senate into discredit with the people.

Mr. Jones (Dem., Ark.) then spoke on the free-coinage substitute for the house bond bill. When he had finished Mr. Teller asked him what speed it was proposed to make with the consideration of the bill and when a vote would be asked. Mr. Jones replied that as there were quite a number of senators who desired to be heard no move would be made toward bringing the bill to a vote for some days at least. The senate then, at 3:50, adjourned until Monday.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

Business Interests of the Country Want
Such a Bureau.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Congressman Cobb of St. Louis Friday introduced in the house a measure which is the result of a concerted movement by the commercial bodies of the country in favor of a much more thorough recognition of the business interests of the country by the government. It proposes the establishment of a department of commerce similar to those which many of the European governments already possess. This is to be made an executive department of the government, and its head a member of the cabinet, to be known as the secretary of commerce. The measure provides for the appointment of an assistant secretary and the organization of a bureau or department, whose duty it shall be to study the commercial interests of the country, gather statistical and other information thereon, compare its workings and operations with those of other countries, and look after the enforcement of such legislation as will serve the enormous financial interests involved.

Silver Men Count Their Votes.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Some of the Republican silver senators held a conference after the adjournment of the senate Friday to canvass the chances of passing the silver substitute for house bill through the senate. They reached the conclusion that the substitute would win by a majority of about three votes. They also considered the alternative of postponing action until after the new senators from Utah shall arrive, but concluded that, in view of the facts developed at the meeting, the postponement would not be necessary.

Armor Plate Proves Worthless.

Washington, Jan. 11.—A second test has been made at the Indian Head proving grounds of the eight-inch steel plate representing the armor of the Iowa and Brooklyn. On the first test several days ago the plate was broken at one end into three pieces. The second test was on the remaining end, and this, too, was shattered. Another plate will be tried about ten days hence, and if this proves defective the entire lot of armor will be rejected.

Uprising Feared at Havana.

Havana, Jan. 11.—The authorities have discovered evidence of what they consider a conspiracy to cause an uprising in Havana and deliver the city over to the insurgents. The conspiracy is believed to be widely ramified, and its discovery has caused grave uneasiness in Havana, and suspicions that disaffection is much more widely disseminated than has been admitted. Thirty persons have been arrested for complicity in the plot, and eight have been imprisoned.

BUSINESS RETARDED
BY UNCERTAINTYTHE REVIEW OF TRADE BY DUN & CO.Speculation Was Active During the Week—Sales of Wool Large in View of Possible Passage of New Tariff Bill—The Failures As They
Are Reported.New York, Jan. 11.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s
Weekly Review of Trade says:

"The new year begins with such uncertainty that business is somewhat retarded. The proposed sale of bonds offers ground for confidence in the future, but no one is able to determine what its earliest effects may be in the money market, and for the time it is a cause of hesitation more than hopefulness.

"Speculation in products has not been active. Cotton is unchanged, although the receipts for the week have not been very large, but some slackening appears in the foreign demand. Wheat is about 1 cent higher, and corn the same, without distinct reason in either case, for the government report, tardily conforming to commercial estimates of some months ago, did not command great confidence. Wheat receipts at Western points were almost double last year's, 2,550,702 bushels, against 1,305,704 last year, but Atlantic exports were a little larger than last year, flour included, 2,337,936 bushels, against 2,010,706 a year ago. Corn receipts are about a quarter larger than last year, while Atlantic exports are about four times as large.

"The industrial situation has not materially changed. There is much hesitation in the iron business, with some advance in Bessemer pig, because of the expectation that Connellsville coke and lake ore will both be dearer, and yet finished products of iron and steel are, on the whole, quoted a little lower, and the nail association is still in session to determine whether it will abandon the effort to maintain a fixed price. That branch of business is extremely slow, nothing is doing in rails, and while there is a rather better demand for sheets and plates, and several good orders are reported for structural works, angles are quoted a shade lower. Everything turns on the contracts for ore, which are still unsettled, but the great excess in production of pig iron over the present demand is no longer denied, and it is expected that quite a number of the furnaces will presently discontinue production. Lower prices for Alabama iron renew competition with Eastern furnaces.

"Sales of wool are large, 6,699,300 pounds for the week, against 5,236,715 last year, although a large part of the purchases are of a speculative character, based on belief that prices may be advanced if the new tariff bill goes into effect. The opening of woolen goods shows a further tendency toward lower prices, in spite of the prevalent belief that higher prices would be realized before long if the revenue bill which passed the house should become a law. The cotton mills are generally running, though not at all with full force, and some are piling up goods regardless of immediate demand, which is comparatively slack, as they apparently believe that the short supply of cotton this year will insure them profits in the end, as it has during the past year. Nevertheless goods have decidedly weakened in price, quite a number of changes having been recorded during the past week.

"Failures for the week have been 431 in the United States, against 420 last year, and fifty-three in Canada, against fifty-four last year."

AVENGED HIS DAUGHTER.

E. W. McFarland Fatally Shot by Stanhope Royster at Boone, Iowa.

Boone, Iowa, Jan. 11.—Because he believed E. W. McFarland had led his daughter astray, Stanhope Royster shot McFarland five times Friday morning, inflicting fatal wounds. The only reason Royster did not shoot longer was that his pistol was empty. After the shooting Royster gave himself up and was taken to the city jail. McFarland was carried to his room, and doctors called to attend him. They found one bullet had entered his body just below his right arm, that three had lodged in the right shoulder only two or three inches apart, and ranging downward, and that the fifth had entered the back just below the left shoulder blade. The physicians say that two of the wounds are surely fatal, and he cannot live through the day. Public opinion is entirely with Royster.

Crisis in Canadian Cabinet.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 11.—Premier Bowell is, for the time being, master of the political situation. It is asserted by his friends that he will pull through the crisis and have the seven ministerial positions filled when parliament meets Tuesday. In doing so, however, he will cause the disruption of the conservative party, as at present organized, as the bolters from the ministry are opposing his every effort.

Mower Is Safe.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 11.—A special dispatch received from Vancouver states that the Warimoo, from Hawaii, had arrived and reports safe the Mower, the steamship which was supposed to be ensnared while endeavoring to save the Strathnevis.

WAR IS LESS LIKELY
ACROSS THE SEAGERMAN EMPEROR WRITES TO QUEEN VICTORIA.He Disclaims of Any Intention of Casting a Slur Upon the Dignity of Great Britain—View of Berlin Correspondents—Johannesburg Quiet—
Boers Arrest Prominent Men.

London, Jan. 11.—The Daily Telegraph has a dispatch from Berlin which says: "On Wednesday a special messenger brought an autograph letter from the queen to the emperor, whose reply is by now in the queen's hands. It is believed that the emperor confirms the assurance already given by his responsible ministers that he had no intention of casting a slur upon Great Britain's dignity. The Anglo-German campaign will now, it is hoped, be terminated by an honorable truce."

The Times publishes an editorial in which it highly compliments Secretary Chamberlain upon his strong, just and wise policy in a difficult crisis. With reference to President Krueger's continued holding of Dr. Jameson the Times says: "It will not be reasonable for the Boers to push their pretensions too far."

With regard to Germany's attitude this paper says: "If all of the outcry is meaningless we are well content to have been roundly abused. The warning has proved a useful object lesson, showing Great Britain is united and is prepared to defend her interests."

A correspondent of the Times at The Hague says: "If Emperor William's telegram to President Krueger was a bid for popularity in Holland it has not been altogether successful. The Dutch government has maintained a moderate and impartial silence, while public interest chiefly centers in the warlike feeling aroused in Great Britain."

The Standard's Berlin correspondent confirms the correspondent of the Times in the opinion that Germany has no intention to call a conference or to propose an abrogation of the convention of 1884. "At the same time," the Standard's correspondent goes on, "there are plentiful hints of future agreement between Germany and the Transvaal which should keep Britain on guard. I fear that Germany is beginning to find that it is she and not Great Britain that is isolated, and while the isolation is not serious for Britain, it is for Germany."

The Daily News correspondent at Berlin after a long discussion of the situation says: "The whole action of Germany was a mistake. She did not desire to quarrel with us, but only to prove the value of her friendship. In pursuance of this object Germany overstepped the limits of precaution. It is significant, however, that all the papers connected with the government publish statements about the abrogation of the convention of 1884. And, though they have no correspondents at Pretoria, they display a suspicious acquaintance with the intentions of the Transvaal government."

The correspondent of the Times at Berlin telegraphs: "Whatever after-effects the Transvaal incident may have on German policy, in government and even in higher circles the disposition now is to regard the matter as closed. A few uncompromising spirits still expect that the Transvaal will insist upon a declaration of absolute independence, but it is doubtful whether the German government will sustain that hope. At the same time it will be premature to imagine that all cause for anxiety has disappeared. In colonial circles the intention is manifest to utilize the anti-British campaign as a lever to agitate for an increase in the navy."

London, Jan. 10.—The most important development in the South African situation is the fact that, in spite of all denials, it is now believed in many quarters that there is some truth in the rumors that Great Britain has purchased Delagoa Bay from Portugal.

If this be the case, an entirely new complexion will be thrown upon the political situation, and it may turn out to be the excuse of the assembling of such a powerful British fleet as the one which will be anchored off Portland on Tuesday next. As it is understood that the government of the Transvaal has demanded among other things, that Great Britain forego her right to obtain possession of Delagoa Bay, and as Germany may look upon this as a move which will seriously threaten the future of the Transvaal, the situation, if the report is true, will become more critical. Efforts are now being made to obtain a confirmation or a denial of the reported purchase of Delagoa Bay by Great Britain.

President Krueger, it is announced, has sent the following telegram to Sir Hercules Robinson, the governor of Cape Colony, for transmission to Mr. Chamberlain.

"It is my intention to hand over the prisoners so that Dr. Jameson and the British under him may be punished by her majesty's government. I will make known to your excellency my final decision in the matter as soon as Johannesburg shall have reverted to a condition of quietness and order. In the meantime, I request your excellency to assure the queen of my high appreciation of her words, and in proffering my respectful good wishes to express my thanks for the same."

All Quiet at Johannesburg.

London, Jan. 11.—The Times has a dispatch from Pretoria, dated Jan. 8, which says: "The disarming of Johannesburg has been completed without mishap, and the Boer police now patrol the town. The crisis is practically ended, and orders have been issued for all Boer commanders to proceed to Pretoria, where they meet to-day. Thus ended this unique revolution, during which not even a policeman has been knocked on the head, and not a single act of violence has been committed. President Krueger and the executive have exhibited remarkable coolness throughout. The stability of the government has been unmistakably displayed."

Boers Arrest Prominent Men.

Johannesburg, Jan. 11.—Twenty-two members of the reform committee, including Col. Rhodes, brother of Cecil Rhodes; Sir Drummond Dunbar, Lionel Phillips and Dr. Sauer, were arrested at their club last evening on the charge of high treason and conveyed under escort to Pretoria. Perfect quiet prevails here. The populace is indifferent and the Uitlanders are disarming.

JOHN GEHER PARDONED.

Alleged Leader of Riotous Miners Released by Gov. Altgeld.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 11.—Governor Altgeld has pardoned ex-Representative John L. Geher out of the state prison, where he was sentenced for five years in June, 1894, for murder. During the coal strike of 1894 the coal mines of Little & Co., in Tazewell county, near Peoria, were fired upon by a crowd of striking coal miners from various adjacent towns, and during the melee two men were killed and the mine was burned to the ground. It was charged that Geher led the strikers. Many citizens asked for the pardon, and in accordance with the affidavit of Edward Little that his brother Peter was responsible for the riot, the governor grants an absolute pardon and orders Geher released. John Heathcot, Daniel Caddell, and Charles Jones are also pardoned.

Engineer Saves His Passengers.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 11.—The Illinois Central passenger train leaving here at 8:40 yesterday morning ran into an open switch at Mud Lake, seven miles east of this city. The engine is badly damaged and the baggage car a total wreck. The injured are: Engineer Adam Shell of Clinton; head badly cut and perhaps injured internally. Fireman Alonzo McDonald of Springfield; badly bruised and scratched. Engineer Shell remained at his post and reversed the engine, and undoubtedly saved the lives of twenty passengers, as otherwise the train would have gone over an embankment into the lake.

Lake Levels Can Be Raised.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The bills and resolutions introduced by Senator Brice of Ohio and Representative Griswold of Pennsylvania looking to a thorough inquiry as to the probability of raising the level of the lakes by dams across their outlets are attracting a good deal of attention among members of congress and are likely to receive favorable action. While army engineers are proverbially a silent lot, except when called upon to speak officially, it is known here that they think favorably of the proposition. Indeed, there have been intimations in some of their reports in former years that a plan of this sort would be advisable or, at least, worthy of a trial.

Omaha's Ex-Treasurer Arrested.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 11.—Ex-City Treasurer Bolln was arrested last night. He was deposed several months ago, owing to rumors of shortage in his office. Recently it developed that over $100,000 of the city funds could not be accounted for. His deputy, Jerome Eugene Coulter, was arrested recently for taking $30,000 of the money, but for some reason, Bolln escaped prosecution until last night. The arrest has been expected for some time, but as Bolln's bondsmen appeared to be satisfied, and the public prosecutor took little notice of the big shortage, it was thought the matter would go by default.

Grave Robbers at Des Moines, Iowa.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 11.—It has been discovered that the bodies of Mrs. Rachel Mann, aged 73, and Sandy Bell, aged 45, have been stolen from a cemetery here. Search resulted in finding the bodies in the dissecting-room of the medical department of Drake university. Three other mutilated bodies were found in the dissecting-room, but they have not been identified.

SAW SCORES SLAIN IN CESAREA, TURKEY

REV. H. K. WINGATE WRITES
OF THE MASSACRE.

The American Missionary Who Is Now Stationed at That Place Is Well Known Here, and Tells of the Awful Scenes He Witnessed—Is a Tale of Barbarity.

Rev. Henry K. Wingate, who is well known in Janesville, but now an American missionary in Turkey, writes an interesting letter concerning the massacres in Cesarea. Rev. Mr. Wingate visited Janesville a year or two ago, and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ashcraft, Jr. His father, J. H. Wingate, now a North Minneapolis merchant, was once in partnership with W. H. Ashcraft, Sr., in Janesville. Rev. Mr. Wingate's letter was published in The Minneapolis Journal. It was written from Turkey-in-Asia, and said that up to the time of writing, Cesarea had escaped rioting, and it was hoped that there would be none. Such, however, was not the case, and to the outbreak that finally occurred, Dr. Wingate was an eye witness. A guard of soldiers protected the missionaries, yet the deeds of carnage were committed within their sight. Mrs. Wingate and others of the teachers and missionaries had been sent to Tallas, where there is a girls' school, and were unmolested. In Cesarea the feeling ran high, and the rabble waited hungrily for a chance to glut their passions on the defenseless Armenians.

The situation of the missionaries would become hazardous with the withdrawal of the soldiers, he says.

The Government's Responsibility. Facts cited in the letter leave no doubt as to the part played by the Turkish government—that of silent encouragement.

Some difficulty was had in mailing the letter but it was finally forwarded through the Bible house at Constantinople. It is said that the horror of the past three days had been beyond conception. The alarm was given by one of the school boys. Rev. Mr. Wingate hastened to the roof of the building and saw the Turks killing every Armenian they could lay their hands on. Much of the fiendish work was done from the house tops and the Turks swarmed over the roofs stoning, beating and shooting all who opposed them. Rev. Mr. Wingate says he succeeded in turning back the rabble from the roofs adjoining his own, which was a trifle higher than the others but aside from that he could do nothing. One attack was made on Rev. Mr. Wingate's residence, but the reckless man who unlawfully wielded an ax at the street door soon became alarmed and ran for his life. The mob evidently had orders to leave the Americans alone, and this man had made a mistake. No guard was stationed at the house, but Rev. Mr. Wingate got soldiers by calling on them for protection while they were passing.

Saved Many Lives

Thus the American escaped harm, and was able to secrete some sixty people, who came fleeing over the housetops. About sunset the scene became less bloody, but the soldiers were very dilatory in preserving the peace and protecting the people. After sunset the government made an honest effort to quell the mob and did so. The next morning, however, the trouble again broke out. Then a military guard was supplied the Americans, and by night one hundred refugees had been hidden in the missionary quarters.

The barbarity exhibited, the letter says, was shocking. Men and women were literally hacked to pieces, and it was estimated that a thousand people were slain. Many houses were burned.

"Our safety," the letter continues, "depends upon the continued presence of the troops. The Turkish population is overwhelming in numbers, and nothing but a strong force can cope with them now that they have their appetites whetted."

Hot Weather.

It is warming up again on hats. The weather does it partly and the prices do the rest. Any man can afford a nice new stiff hat now to wear in mild weather, at the prices they can buy one of; $2 will get the Cracker Jack hat, latest shape, January block. Frank H. Baack.

A SOLUTION FROM EVANSVILLE.

Another From Evansville

EDITOR GAZETTE—I enclose solution to your very puzzling, puckering example, and right or wrong I am very glad to get it out of sight.

The wording of the example is not altogether plain. In the first part of it, it says interest payable annually, in the last part it says with annual interest, which I think indefinite. Hence I send two answers. I hope the proof will be sufficient guarantee that the solution is the correct one. I. C. DEVUREUX.

Evansville, Jan. 11.

The mortgage is worth $4,000; the mortgage interest at 5 per cent is $1,800; interest on interest is $350; worth of mortgage in 9 years equals $6,150. $6,150 divided by $1.54 equals $3,993.50, present worth at 6 per cent, not counting interest payable annually.

Computing interest on interest on 3,993.50, we find 503.18 divided by 1.54 equals $326.73, the present worth. 3,993.50 divided by 326.74 equals 5,666.86.

Computing interest on interest on 3,666.76 equals 461.38, plus 1.54 equals 299.57, the present worth of interest on interest to be deducted from 3,993.50 equals 3693.9352, amount paid for mortgage.

Proof—But 3,693.94 for nine years at 6 per cent, equals 1,994.73; interest on interest on 3,636.76, 461.33; amount paid for mortgage, 3,693.94; when added together equals 6,150.00, the worth of mortgage when due.

Mortgage principal, 4,000 dollars; interest at 5 per cent, for nine years, 1,800 dollars; interest on interest at 5 cent, 350 dollars; whole amount, 6,150 dollars.

If the buyer does not want interest payable annually, then he pays for mortgage, $3,993.50; otherwise he pays $369,393.52.

J. E. Wallin Says $3333.33

EDITOR GAZETTE—$4000 at 5 per cent for 1 year equals $1800. Add principal $4000 and mortgage is worth at the end of 8 years $5800. A principal to be worth $200 divided by 6 per cent or $3333.33 or the sum the buyer would pay. Proof—$3333.33 at 6 per cent for 9 years equals $1890.

Add principal $4000 and you have $5890. The catch is here. At the end of nine years the maker of the mortgage would have to pay the face of the mortgage or $4000, not simply the sum the buyer paid for it and here is where so many have made the mistake of thinking the mortgage would be worth to the buyer at maturity only what he paid for it instead of $4000 which is the face of the mortgage and what he would receive for it. J. E. WALLIN, City.

E. P. Hayward Says $3766.23.

EDITOR GAZETTE—My answer to the problem is $3766.23 found by dividing the amount of $5,800 by $1.54, but as yet I have seen no proof for that answer. Here it is:

The buyer received $1,800 in interest on the mortgage during the nine years, and also $4,000 minus $3766.23 or $233.77 more than he paid for it at the end of the nine years. $1,800 and $233.77 equals $2033.77. Interest on $3766.23 for nine years at 6 per cent, equals $2033.77, which proves that the answer $3766.23 is correct.

E. P. HAYWARD, City.

"B's" Idea of It.

EDITOR GAZETTE—One dollar at six per cent will produce fifty-four cents in nine years. One dollar at five per cent will produce forty-five cents in nine years; 54 is to 45 as $4,000 is to the answer, which is $3,333.33. B. City

SOUSA'S BAND TO PLAY HERE

It Will Be At The Myers Grand on February 3

Manager Stoddard has some good things in store for Janesville amusement lovers. For instance, Sousa's great military band the world famous musical organization will appear at the Myers Grand on Monday evening, February 3. This is undoubtedly the greatest organization extant and the Myers Grand will probably be taxed by an audience such as was never seen in Janesville before. John Philip Sousa is the foremost band leader and composer of band music in the world.

Charles E. Davis will be here on Jan. 29 while Rice's 1492 will be given on Jan. 31.

The Devil's Auction

The Devil's Auction drew an audience that taxed the Myers Grand last night.

The production is as bright as ever, filled to repletion with specialties that ring the changes from excellent dancing to the most grotesque and nonsensical absurdities, inserted for mere laughter's sake. The trick scenery is abundant and novel, transformations beautiful, and the mounting all that could be desired. The ballets are an improvement over last year, costuming rich and varied-colored. One of the best specialties in the entire show was the comic acrobatic feats of the Donazzetas and the Lorellas in some eccentric fun-making were highly satisfactory. The whole performance is glowing with light, action and color and should amuse the old and delight the young.

Important Changes in Train Service on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R'y.

New time tables go into effect on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway on Sunday next, and among the changes affecting Janesville we note the train for Racine, Elkhorn, Delavan, Clinton Junction, Freeport, Rock Island, Chicago, Elgin, Rockford and Beloit, and for points in southern Iowa, will depart at 11:30 a. m. Train from Chicago in the evening at 6:10 o'clock instead of 5:40 p. m., and train for Mineral Point and intermediate places will depart at 6:10 o'clock p. m.

PRETTY gardeners from 50 cents to $1.00. Very cheap for them. Lowell's Annex.

Pure Blood

Is the great requisite for good health, because the blood is the vital fluid which carries nourishment and support to all the organs of the body.

Make your blood pure now by the use of the great blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla. Prof. Edwin F. Norton, professor of French and German at Olivet College, Michigan, writes: "We have always found Hood's Sarsaparilla of great value in restoring vigor, appetite, etc., whenever we have used it."

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills. They assist digestion.

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

THE BIG STORE 20, 22, 24, 26 S. MAIN ST., JANESVILLE, WIS.
WE KEEP THE QUALITY UP.

To Say That

The women of this fair city appreciate genuine, all wool, yard wide bargains, is to state the truth.

More Dress Goods

Have been sold by us since we commenced our present mark down dress goods sale than ever before in the same length of time at this season of the year.

Long Headed Women...

Women who are endowed with rare, cool, sound judgment, are entering right into the spirit of this dress goods movement, and stocking up with good, clean, honest dress goods at prices that their rare common sense tells them are simply too low to last a great while.

The Choicest

Dress goods in our store are being offered at figures that are making scissors fairly fly. Such dress goods inducements are not to be found every day, nor such a comprehensive stock to select from.

Black Dress Goods

Not a piece in the store but that has felt the razor-edge of the price cutter. You can make no mistake in buying a nice black dress. The styles that you'll like are all here.

When for 25c a yard

A good, serviceable, all wool dress can be had, is there any possible excuse for not getting one.

The 33c Plaids

That have been in the store less than a week are fast disappearing. Why? Because only a short time ago they were sold at 50c a yard, and good plaid value at that; but we struck it rich in getting hold of these at a way-under-price and offer them the same way.

The 59c Price

Is making serious inroads into the large pile of plain and novelty dress goods we corded up on a table at the head of the dress goods department. There are about 10 pieces of novelty goods in the lot that were retailed not long ago, right in New York, at $1.20 a yard.

This Dress Goods Sale

Is no sham, and each day sees many women in the store who have not attended the sale before—sees many women buying dress goods lower than they had ever hoped to buy them.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Once Believed to Be the Only
Cure for Piles and Rectal Diseases.

A Better Way Now Discovered, Which Cures Every Form of Piles Without Pain or Inconvenience.

Many people suffer the pain, annoyance and often serious results from piles for years, and after trying the many lotions, salves, ointments and so called cures without cure or relief, give up the hope of a final cure, rather than submit to the intense pain and danger to life which a surgical operation involves.

Happily all this suffering is no longer necessary, since the discovery of the Pyramid Pile Cure; a remedy which is approved by the medical profession, as being absolutely safe, free from any trace of opiates, narcotic or mineral poisons and which may be depended upon as a certain cure (not merely relief) in any form of Piles, whether itching, blind, bleeding or protruding. Some of the hundreds of cures recently made are little short of marvelous, as a perusal of the following will demonstrate.

Major Dean, of Columbus, Ohio, says:
I wish to add to the number of certificates
as to the benefits derived from the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered from Piles for forty years and from Itching Piles for twenty years, and two boxes of the Pyramid Pile
Cure has effectually cured me.

Dr. J. W. Morgan, Leonardville, Kan.,
writes: I have used a box of Pyramid Pile Cure and received more benefit and relief than from any remedy I had used in the past twenty-two years.

James Jemerson, Dubuque, Iowa, says: I suffered from Piles for six years; have just used the Pyramid Pile Cure and am a well man.

Mrs. M. C. Hinkly, 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: Have been a sufferer from the pain and annoyance of Piles for fifteen years, the Pyramid Pile Cure and Pyramid Pills gave me immediate relief and in a short time a complete cure.

The Pyramid Pile Cure may be found at druggists at 50 cts. and $1.00 per package.
A book on cause and cure of Piles will be sent by mail, by addressing the Pyramid Drug Co., Albion, Mich.

LEAF MARKET VERY QUIET.

Very Little is Doing But Better Times Are Expected.

That the Janesville leaf market is almost too quiet for a funeral is the opinion of The Janesville Leaf. Is it the lull before a storm of activity or is it the solemn hush before the final death struggle? Let us hope it is the former. The only sale that has reached us that of 17 cases of '92 sold by Samuel Grundy. Considerable tobacco has been shipped out but it was sold some weeks ago. It is reported that a few crops of '95 have been picked up recently but we are unable to ascertain the prices paid. George H. Rumrill and Soverhill & Porter are operating assorting rooms and others will soon start up.

There are 42 men at work in the assorting room of the John Brand warehouse, in Evansville.

The firm of Haviland & Rudolph have four traveling men on the road and Merritt Haviland will soon start out again making the fifth. This busy firm has been doing a good business during the past few months.

M. F. Greene, of the extensive leaf firm of J. M. & M. F. Greene, of Janesville and Reading, Pa., left last Thursday for Reading, where he will meet his brothers, J. L. and F. C.
Greene, who conduct the Reading branch.

Samuel Grundy has moved some seven hundred cases of tobacco he had stored in the MacGe warehouse to his new quarters on Wall street where he is at home to all his friends. The tobacco in storage at his Pleasant Street warehouse will remain undisturbed at present.

S. B. Heddles, the popular First Ward alderman, has rented the Keim-busch portion of the Heddles & Keim-busch warehouse, and now controls the entire building, which is one of the largest in the city and has a capacity of 6,000 cases. Mr. Heddles is now in a position to furnish storage to those who may need the same.

ARTIST TO VISIT CRIPPLE CREEK

E. E. Burdick Will Make Pictures of the Mining Town.

E. E. Burdick, the well known artist, will go to Cripple Creek. Mr.
Burdick has not caught the gold fever,
but says that there is a great chance to study human nature at that place.
He will leave for the scene of the gold excitement, and will take his etching outfit with him.

Fifty cents will be paid at the Gazette office for copies of the city map published by W. F. Curtis.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1757—General Alexander Hamilton, American soldier and statesman, secretary of the treasury under Washington, born in Novis, West Indies; killed by Aaron Burr in a duel July 12, 1804. Hamilton's career was romantic from beginning to end. It was by adoption that he became a citizen of the country he served with distinction. His father was a Scottish merchant located in the West Indies. At 15 the boy was sent to New York to enter Kings college, to prosecute studies for which he showed a strong inclination. After two years spent in military studies he entered the army as captain of artillery. He served five years in active campaigns. The fall of Fort Mifflin having virtually ended the war he turned his attention to law and finance.

1825—Bayard Taylor, American author and traveler, born at Kennett Square, Pa.; died in Berlin in 1878.

1804—Isabella Shawe Thackeray, widow of the distinguished author, died at Leigh, England; born 1819.

AFTER NEW PROVINCES.

Lust of land is not all that moves England to claim new provinces. She has two objects—first, to supply land or employment to her redundant population, and, second, to provide new markets for her manufactures. Australia, New Zealand and Ceylon have drawn from the mother country hordes of her young and aspiring sons, who have established homes in these remote regions and founded industries, thus benefitting themselves and developing trade, and increasing England's wealth. South Africa, too, has drawn to its shores large numbers of this migratory race. The English church has been established there, and the crowded ranks of the clergy at home have measurably been relieved by the numbers withdrawn to fill the positions thus created. The ranks of law and medicine, as well as the ranks of those engaged in merchandising and the various industrial pursuits, have likewise found a sphere for their activities in this outpost of the British Empire. Besides, the discovery of diamond fields and gold mines has made South Africa an immense theatre for speculation.

When acquisitions of territory have thus been successful, when they have stimulated and rewarded enterprise and become new seats of Empire, a hunger for more territory and for equal scenes for settlement and exploit is created; and this hunger grows insatiable when balked by intervening territory that stands as an outpost and an obstacle to the seizure of lands lying beyond its borders. This is the position in the Transvaal. The English colonists are eager to extend the British line to the Zambesi, which would carry British sway a thousand miles to the northward of Cape Town. But the Boers must first be brushed aside before the British line can be thus extended. As for South America, no extensions are possible until the Monroe doctrine is set aside.

CRUSHING THE CUBANS

Gen. Campos is supposed to be trying a new plan on Cuban insurgents. The Cubans having advanced westward into the province of Pinar del Rio, the Spanish commander proposes to establish a strong strategic line running across the island of Cuba from Havana on the northern coast to Eatabano on the south and the retreat of the Cubans having been cut off, they will be pressed from all sides and either exterminated or compelled to surrender. The principal defect in this military plan is that it is not new; it has been tried again and again during the progress of the present insurrection without success. Spanish deadlines have been successfully established, beginning on the border of Santiago, the most easterly of the Cuban provinces, and each succeeding line has been extended further west than its predecessor; but hitherto these military cordons have been broken through by the insurgents with as little difficulty as a spider's web is torn by an angry wasp. The Cuban wasp will probably continue to flit about the island at its own sweet will, in spite of any mesh which Spanish ingenuity may devise.

Great Caesar! $262,000,000, not to mention the interest which will have to be paid on the bonds, added to the public debt, in a time of profound peace, in less than three years. That record will be sufficient to keep the democratic party from ever being trusted with the control of this government again. The experience has come high, but that is usually the way with the most useful experience.

Here's a little object lesson showing the difference between republican and democratic administration of national finances. The negotiation of the bonds representing the great war debt of $2,500,000,000 cost about $5,000,000, while the Cleveland administration allowed a syndicate to make more than $10,000,000 on an issue of $62,000,000 in bonds.

DON'T APPROVE OF DEBT.

New mayors were inaugurated in 37 Rhode Island and Massachusetts cities this week and nearly all of the mayors in their inaugural addresses urged that a check be placed upon municipal expenditure, and that the pay-as-you-go policy be adopted. The fallacy that a public debt is a public blessing is clearly losing its hold upon the New England mind; and inauguration day in that section of the country has suggested a sort of leaf-turning which is commended to the imitation of the people of the other sections.

The people should subscribe for that entire bond issue, if for no other reason than to rebuke Mr. Cleveland for his expressed lack of confidence in them. He is credited with having said that these bonds would have to be sold to the bankers because the people will not buy them. He should be convinced to the contrary.

Did Secretary Olney really tell the head of that bankers' syndicate that advertising for bids for those bonds was merely a little bluff (as has been charged) and that they could put in a bid with confidence in its being accepted?

The duke of Marlborough indignantly denies that Gould money has been spent upon his ancestral home. Then what has the young fellow done with those Gould millions he took along with his wife?

The amendments to the pension laws which the house committee on pensions has incorporated in the regular pension appropriation bill aer in the line of common sense and of justice.

After all, Mr. Bayard ought not to be blamed if he concludes to reside permanently in England after he retires from office; he has lost the few friends he had in the United States.

Senator Elkins has the satisfaction of knowing that his anti-private bond sale resolution frightened Mr. Cleveland into changing his programme for that bond issue.

Queen Victoria is likely to be even more worried over the probability of a war with Germany than she was about a time with Uncle Sam.

There is only one reason why Senator Hill isn't one of the democratic leaders in the senate; he hasn't any followers to lead.

In view of that bond issue, it seems proper to ask why Mr. Cleveland eulcered congress out of its holiday recess?

Oak Hill Cemetery Meeting.

LYLE S. HUMPHREY IS UNDER ARREST

EVANSVILLE NOW HAS QUITE A SENSATION.

He is Charged With Breaking Into His Father-in-Law's Residence and Choking His Wife, Who Had Left Him Some Time Before—D. S. Taylor Jailed.

Evansville has a sensation, and that is the reason Lyle D. Humphrey is under arrest.

The accused man married a daughter of Mr. Eager, one of the wealthiest men in the village. They did not live happily however, and finally separated. Later Mrs. Humphrey returned to the home of her parents.

Last Wednesday night Humphrey returned to Evansville and sought the home of his wife.

He effected an entrance to the house through the cellar window, it is said, and quietly stole up to his wife's room.

She alleges that he attempted to choke her and it is said that a knife was used in the attack. She supposed to be used in hanging her. When Mrs. Humphrey learned who the intruder was, she called for help, and Humphrey took to his heels leaving his cap behind.

Village Marshal Brink was notified, and went to Madison and arrested Humphrey, and he was put under bonds to be examined on January 20th. District Attorney Jackson went to Evansville yesterday and investigated the case fully. Burglary with intent to commit felony is the charge against the accused. Mr. Eager proposes to push the case to the bitter end.

Chief of Police Acheson did a clever piece of work this morning when he caught Charles E. Taylor, and put him in jail.

Taylor was wanted at Madison, where he got $40 and a gold watch through a little scheme that he worked under the guise of giving an entertainment for the Woman's Relief Corps.

The money was raised to pay expenses, and the watch was to be a prize for the best drilled man in the Madison militia company. After getting these articles Taylor decamped and had not been seen until today. He admitted his identity to Officer Oochrane, who took him to jail. Madison authorities have been notified of his arrest.

Taylor came here in search of work as a shoemaker. He was arrested near the Janesville Shoe Company's factory.

BIG SAFE IN THE EXPRESS CAR.
Huge Strong Box is Carried on the C. & N. W. Limited.

When the vestibule pulled into the city last evening from Chicago, what few passengers there were upon the platform were much interested in a large safe in the express car. The messenger satisfied their curiosity by telling them that the safe weighed 4,800 pounds; it was held to the floor by large iron bands, and was of the very latest pattern, being of the Remington-Sherman make.

"Since robberies have been a common thing in the west, the express companies have taken this extra precaution. He said: 'The contents of this safe are unknown to me, for the combination is fixed in Chicago, and is then taken off, so that it is impossible for me to open it, even if I was to be shot, if I did not.'"

The safe is a model one, and is made of layers of steel of different tempers, so that where a drill successfully entered the first layer, it would be a hard job to make any impression on the next course of metal. The safes have all been tested with dynamite, and are as near "safe" as they can be.

TWO GRIPS WERE SOAKED IN OIL.
H. B. DeLong Has a Claim Against the C. & N. W. Company.

Because of the carelessness of the baggage men the chances are the Northwestern railroad company will have a bill to settle with H. B. DeLong, of this city. Mrs. DeLong, who has been visiting in Chicago has returned home and on leaving the Northwestern depot in Chicago she checked her two satchels. One of them contained a new dress, while among the contents of the other were several valuable books. When the "grips" were delivered here both were found to be saturated with kerosene, spoiling them and their contents. Mr. DeLong reported the matter yesterday and the local officials promised to look into it.

PARALYTIC STROKE FELLS WM. PAUL

IT MAKES ONE SIDE ENTIRELY USELESS.

He Falls Helpless While Waiting For the Meeting of County Fair Stockholders to Be Called to Order—It Is Believed That He Will Recover.

William Paul, known from one end of Rock county to another as "Cousin Willie" and a prominent figure in every Scottish celebration was stricken with paralysis in the court house this afternoon.

He went up to attend the meeting of the Agricultural society stock holders and just before the meeting was called to order he tottered and fell.

The fire patrol was called, and he was taken to the Palmer Memorial hospital, where Dr. James Mills attended him.

He was found to have no use of his left side, and to be almost speechless. Dr. Mills thought there was a fair chance for his recovery, however, unless another stroke should follow.

NO NEW CONSTITUTION ADOPTED

After all their talk about a new constitution and twenty directors, the stockholders of the Rock County Agricultural society met and adjourned without taking action.

The first meeting was set aside as illegal.

The second very promptly did what the first was supposed to have done—elected James Scott, President; Robert Barless, second vice-president; A. C. Jenkins, treasurer, and E. P. Wixom and William Hadden, directors, and adjourned.

He paused, as if in doubt whether he ought to proceed.

"Yes," she said, encouragingly.

"—that education is having a bad effect upon matrimony," he continued; "especially the education of women."

"I never did believe in too much education," she said, softly.

She waited for him to speak, but he said nothing.

"I am glad I never knew my lessons, anyway," she added.

VIEW OF THE MAHDI.

FATHER BONOMI'S STORY OF HIS CAPTIVITY.

The Mahdi Was a Great Knave, He Says, Who Affected Humility in Public and Indulged in Excesses in Private.

FATHER Bonomi, the Italian priest who was for some years prisoner of the Mahdists in the Soudan, was interviewed the other day at his home in a quiet street of Verona by a reporter of the Italian weekly paper L'Illustrazione, and the father talked at some length of his captivity. The priest was found at table with his old mother, his sister, another priest, and a young man. He is described as a sun-burned man with vivid black eyes and a look of alertness and courage. He believes that Italy is to derive benefit from her costly African possessions, and that the dervishes have been weakened by dissension and famine, besides being afraid of Italian arms after recent victories. When asked whether he had personally known the Mahdi, Father Bonomi's answer with a laugh was "Yes, my friend, perforce."

Father Bonomi's view of the Mahdi is fresh and instructive. The father was captured with several other missionaries by a company of dervishes five days' journey from El Obeid. They were not maltreated, but merely forced to accompany their captors. Two sisters and one missionary died on the way, as much from fear as aught else. The others having been taken to El Obeid, which the Soudanese had taken, were set free and left to earn their living by labor. The prisoners occupied a hut, and the men set themselves to earn something by repairing arms and utensils, while the sister attended to the household duties. El Obeid then contained about 60,000 inhabitants, sheltered in huts of a single story, roughly made of clay dried in the sun and bedaubed without so that water might not filter through. The city included fields and gardens, and was of great compass, so that one might not go round it in a day. It was traversed by ample and regular streets.

The people did not trouble themselves about the prisoners, but the Mahdi assumed with them, after his custom, the pomp of an affected humility. He came from his hut at dawn, miserably clad in a patched shirt, and said his prayers in the presence of two or three thousand

"Surely, surely," answered the guests, "we do well."

All this, according to Father Bonomi, was mere pretence. The Mahdi in secret abandoned himself to every imaginable excess, and his death was due to this. When asked whether the Mahdi had nothing extraordinary in body or mind to account for his mastery of men, the father replied that he was a great knave and had the good luck to seize the right moment. Graver revolts than that of the Mahdists have been put down with little force, but when Mahdism arose Egypt was troubled with Arabi Pasha, and by the war with England, and besides the Egyptian governors in the Soudan had incurred the enmity of the people.
